

ORCATAD. Developing a Database of Exemplary Practices in Conservation Agriculture

Rico Lie & Florent Tivet

Wageningen University and Research Center (WUR), The Netherlands

French Agricultural Research Centre for International Development (CIRAD), France

Mission and Objectives

- to conserve information,
- to operate through providing a pool of educational material, and,
- to act as a promotional and advocacy tool.

Specific Target Groups

- officers and students in the field of conservation agriculture
- the commercial sector
- the national and international community of governmental and non-governmental organizations operating in the domain of agriculture or related domains

Contents of the Database

- The content of the database consists of two main areas and several sub-areas:
  - Exemplary Practices and Training Materials
  - Related Material
    - Selected bibliographies in several fields of interest
    - Selected set of links to relevant information on the internet
    - Networking in conservation agriculture

Selected Dimensions

- Quality of Life
  - 5 capitals
- Environmental Sustainability
- Regulatory Environment and Service Provision
- Commercialization and Advocacy

Various Other Aspects of the Database

- Related Materials
  - Bibliographies
  - Internet
  - Networking
- Entering the Database
  - Training and Education
  - Promotion and Advocacy
- Sustainability of the Database
- An Internationally Certified Database
- Open Source
- Location of the On-Line Database
- A CD-Rom
- Examples of Database Entries

ORCATAD. Developing a Database of Exemplary Practices in Conservation Agriculture

Rico Lie & Florent Tivet

Wageningen University and Research Center (WUR), The Netherlands

French Agricultural Research Centre for International Development (CIRAD), France

